BIO

Defying genres, conventions and stereotypes, "The Bodhisattwa Trio" is an Experimental Jazz Fusion/Avant Garde outfit from Kolkata/Delhi (India), which believes in expressionism, social reflection and spontaneous creation. Drawing influences from life, the universe and everything, the trio, with Bodhisattwa Ghosh on Guitars, Premjit Dutta on Drums and Shonai on Keyboards & Synth Bass delivers a mix of original instrumental compositions with special emphasis on harmonic and rhythmic expansion, theme and variation, virtuosity and spontaneous improvisation.

Formed in 2012, the trio has under their belt a 4-track EP "Fuzzy Logic" and 3 full length instrumental albums "Intersections", "Heart of Darkness" and "The Grey Album". Their 2nd album "Heart of Darkness", launched in May 2016, has received critical acclaim throughout India and abroad, being the highest selling independent album in India for the month of June 2016, the "Album of the year 2016" by Mid-Day, Mumbai, "One of the top 10 albums of 2016" by Rolling Stone India and The Hindu, Bangalore.

Following the release of their 3rd album "The Grey Album" in January 2019, released under the banner of Croatian Record Label "Intek Music", which made them the first Indian Artist to be signed with a Croatian Label, the trio completed their 3rd tour of Europe in June-July 2019, performing in festivals and venues across Germany, Poland, Hungary, Serbia, Slovenia, Croatia and Lithuania, receiving critical acclaim and appreciation from audiences, critiques and media alike.

REVIEWS

Mike Jurkovic, All About Jazz:

„By incessantly stacking one post-rock ambiguity upon another, Calcutta's Bodhisattwa Trio's The Grey Album is anything but. Instead, The Grey Album is an animated aggregate of garage-band sound and fury determined to turn your head, prick your ears, and rattle your sensibilities while leading you through seven swirling, roiling, soundscapes.“

Ujjainee Roy, The New Indian Express Indulge:

„Nothing defines The Bodhisattwa Trio better than its spontaneous and avante-garde approach to jazz. The Kolkata-based indie outfit has been around for seven years now, and has stayed true to its experimental promise while staying relevant with their sound.“
